

One day with us in Dover could make years of difference...

ON APRIL 26TH HELP MAKE DELAWARE THE MOST WALKABLE,
BIKEABLE STATE IN AMERICA

DATE: THURSDAY, APRIL 26, 2012

TIME: 10:00AM—2:00PM

LOCATION: BIGGS MUSEUM
406 FEDERAL ST., DOVER

Walkable, Bikeable Delaware:

Quality of Life, Economic Development, and Health Promotion

Featuring our Governor
Jack Markell

10:00 - 10:30am • Dr. Karyl Rattay, Director of Public Health • with perspectives from Dennis Vorhees of Sanofi Type 2 Cycling Team

10:35 - 11:05am • Marianne Fowler, Rails-to-Trails Conservancy • U.S. Nonmotorized Transportation Pilot Program

11:10 - 11:40am • Collin O'Mara, Secretary of DNREC • Walkable, Bikeable, Healthy and Vibrant Communities

11:45am - 12:15pm • Governor Markell with Introductory Comments by Secretary of DHSS, Rita Landgraf

12:15 - 1:00pm • Lunch, Catered by Abbott's Grill • Visit Exhibitors

1:00 - 1:25pm • Rich Killingsworth, CEO of the National Foundation on Fitness, Sports, & Nutrition • Delaware—A National Treasure

1:30 - 2:00pm • Shailen Bhatt, Secretary of DelDOT • Delaware Senate Concurrent Resolution #13

Please Register: Bikede.org/register

If you would like to talk to your Senator and/or Representative while you are in Dover with us, we can help.

