

Walkable Bikeable Delaware Summit 2016

Today's Schedule

8:30-9:00 am Gathering and Registration

9:00-9:25 am Welcome

- The Honorable Jack Markell - Governor of Delaware
- Jennifer Cohan - Secretary, Delaware Department of Transportation
- Jonathan Kirch - Co-Chair, Advisory Council on Walkability & Pedestrian Awareness
- Dr. Karryl Rattay, Director, Delaware Division of Public Health
- David Howard, Associate Administrator of Policy and Governmental/External Affairs, Federal Highway Administration

9:25-10:45 am America's Deadliest State for Pedestrians:
What Delaware is Doing

- "Walking Through the Data": Analyzing Pedestrian Crashes
Richard Klepner, Delaware Office of Highway Safety
- Can Police Prevent Pedestrian Fatalities?
Lieutenant Matt Cox, Delaware State Police
- Walk This Way, Talk This Way! How Social Media is Being Used to Communicate and Connect in Delaware
Lisa Flowers, Delaware Office of Highway Safety
- Reengineering Delaware's Deadliest Roads
Mark Luszcz, Chief Traffic Engineer, Delaware Department of Transportation

10:45-11:15 am Networking Break

11:15 am -12:15 pm Keynote

How We Defeated the "Boulevard of Death"

Ann Marie Doherty, Chief of the Research, Implementation & Safety Unit of the Traffic Planning and Management Division, New York City Department of Transportation

12:15 -1:30 pm Lunch catered by Chef "Deep Sea" Phil Harris

1:30 -2:45 pm Panel Discussion

The Missing Link - The Role of Land Use in Enhancing Pedestrian Safety

Moderator: Jonathan Kirch

Panelists:

- Marco Boyce, Senior Planner, New Castle County Department of Land Use
- Marc Coté, Asst. Director, Development Coordination in the Division of Planning
- Ann Marie Doherty, Chief of the Research, NYC Department of Transportation
- Connie Holland, Director of the Office of State Planning Coordination
- Rob McCleary, Chief Engineer, Delaware Department of Transportation